KNOX COUNTY PUBLIC LIBRARY

Dear Teacher,

You know how important fun and engaging literacy experiences are for young children. Books engage the imagination, unlock the details of our world, and encourage meaningful interaction between child and adult. Learning happens throughout the day, and we know how challenging it can be to find new activities to enhance the curriculum. Knox County Public Library (KCPL) aims to provide resources that excite and intrigue even the youngest “readers.”

Storytimes to Go are thematically based resource kits designed to infuse language activities into the existing day-long curriculum. They are intended for use by professional preschool teachers with children ages three to five years. A typical kit includes a selection of books, music, puppets, puzzles, flannel boards and/or other manipulatives appropriate for use in the preschool classroom. Each kit also contains a Teacher’s Manual with curriculum connections, activity ideas, reproducibles and a list of other KCPL materials of interest.

Thanks to a generous grant from the East Tennessee Foundation, Knox County Public Library developed Storytimes to Go to bring library resources into the preschool environment, allowing additional opportunities for children to develop early literacy skills in a fun and exciting way. We welcome feedback about the kits. If you have any questions or comments, please contact the Children’s Room by phone at 215-8725 or email at childrensdept@knoxlib.org.

Thank you for your commitment to our community’s children. We hope Knox County Public Library can continue to be a valuable resource in your classroom.

WHY SHARE BOOKS WITH PRESCHOOLERS?

Share books with young children to:

- have them associate reading with pleasure
- broaden their experiences
- help them develop rich imaginations
- increase their listening skills
- increase their educational advantage through access to and awareness of print materials

Sharing books with preschoolers increases:

- reading, writing and speaking ability
- vocabulary
- symbol and letter recognition
- the ability to use more complex sentences
- literal and inferential comprehension skills
- ability to match spoken words with print
- positive attitudes toward reading
- thinking of reading as a valued activity

Shared book experiences help young children to better understand:

- what a book is for
- the concept of authorship
- to turn pages from front to back
- that reading is from left to right
- the concept of words, letters and punctuation
- the meaning of story in “book language” which is more formal than conversation

Through book-centered interaction with an adult, young children learn:

- modeling of reading
- similarities and differences between spoken and written language
- the basic form and structure of written language
- that marks on paper have sounds and meaning
- that a story has a beginning, a middle and an end
- the concept that what is spoken can be written
- to predict what will happen next in stories

THE SIX SKILLS OF EARLY LITERACY

As a teacher, you know how important reading is to developing minds. Young children need a variety of skills to become successful readers. Many of the activities that adults share with children daily—reading and looking at books, singing songs, saying nursery rhymes, exploring the world around us, and others—help build one or more of the six specific early literacy skills that become the building blocks for later reading and writing. Research indicates that children who enter school with more of these skills are better able to benefit from the reading instruction they receive when they arrive at school.

Vocabulary: knowing the names of things

A good Vocabulary is crucial to helping children learn to read and understand what they read. Children with larger vocabularies tend to be better readers and more interested in books. Naming objects, activities, actions, feelings and ideas helps children build their vocabularies.

Print Motivation: one's interest and enjoyment of books

A child with Print Motivation likes to play with books, pretend to write, asks to be read to and likes to listen to stories. Making reading fun and interactive—even for just a few minutes at a time—increases print motivation.

Print Awareness: understanding how we use written words and how to use books

Print Awareness includes basic ideas of how to open a book and turn its pages, as well as, knowledge that English is read from top to bottom and left to right. A child who knows when a book is upside down or points out print in the environment is demonstrating print awareness. Encourage this skill by pointing out and reading words everywhere you see them - on signs, labels, at the grocery store and post office.

Letter Knowledge: knowing the names of letters, their sounds and the differences between them

Children who can identify the name of a letter and what sound it makes have Letter Knowledge. Use fun reading or writing activities to help build this skill, like pointing out and naming letters in books or on signs and labels. For babies, talk about the shape of things, and for preschoolers, try drawing letters and pictures in the sand.

Narrative Skills: being able to tell and understand stories and descriptions

Narrative Skills are essential to a child's comprehension of what she reads. Encourage children to tell you about a book (instead of just listening to it), and have them retell their favorite stories to you. Talk about the sequence of daily routines and activities.

Phonological Awareness: the ability to hear and manipulate the smaller sounds in words

Phonological Awareness includes the ability to hear and create rhymes, to say words with sounds or chunks left out and the ability to put two word chunks together to make a word. Most children who have difficulty in reading have trouble in phonological awareness. Fun word games are a great way to develop this skill: make up silly words, play rhyming games, and sing and read poems, nursery rhymes and rhyming books.

Many of the materials included in this kit can help develop one or more of these six skills. Knox County Public Library does offer free workshops for parents and educators on the early literacy skills and fun ways to help children learn them. For more information, please contact the Children's Room by phone at 215-8725 or email at childrensdept@knoxlib.org.

USING FLANNELBOARD STORIES AND GAMES WITH CHILDREN

Flannelboards are excellent for telling and retelling stories, as well as, teaching and reinforcing concepts in the classroom environment. Below are just a few of the ways that using a flannelboard can help support children's learning and development.

Literacy

Children can listen to and practice telling stories as an avenue for building early literacy skills, especially narrative skills. Flannelboard stories have many of the same benefits as books for developing young minds. Figures used are minimal but help children remember the story's details.

Active Participation

Children can become active participants in the storytelling process by assisting the teller in manipulating the figures or deciding "what's next" in the story.

Listening Skills and Attention Span

Flannelboards provide children the support needed to understand and focus on stories that might otherwise be too long or inaccessible.

Creativity

Use generic flannelboard figures to help children develop creativity, divergent thinking and narrative skills. You might use a set of animals or a set of people for the characters, and ask children to supply the settings, conflict and ideas for resolving the story.

Flexibility for the Teacher

As the teacher, you can tailor flannelboard figures and stories to your students' interests or educational needs. Make figures that reflect your community members and important landmarks or events, or create figures that directly match a specific learning objective. One set of figures (for example, animals) can tell a variety of stories or help teach a variety of concepts.

Also, flannelboards are useful for playing games. Vocabulary, sequencing and matching games all provide meaningful learning opportunities in a new or different way for students.

TIPS FOR CREATING AND USING FLANNELBOARD STORIES

Writing Your Own Stories

- Use a logical plot sequence.
- Write a simple script.
- Keep a copy of your story for future use.
- Use patterns from books, clip art or draw your own.

Making the Figures

- Use bright colors.
- Keep in mind the size of your flannelboard and that children will see the figures from a distance.
- Use Velcro tape, or glue or staples to attach felt to the figures. Glue is best if children might handle the figures, although staples are faster and keep the figures flexible, which helps them last longer.
- You can use magnets or magnetic tape on the figures if you have a magnetic surface in your classroom. (Cookie sheets work great.)

Making a Flannelboard

- A piece of felt draped over a chair, taped to a wall, or wrapped around a hard back book can be a great “stage” for your pieces.
- Black or dark blue felt offers good contrast and resists showing dirt.
- Use a heavy weight cardboard or other sturdy material if you’d like to make your own board. 15” by 15” is a good, portable size.

Storing Materials

- Zip lock bags or file folders work great.
- Keep copies of scripts and patterns with your figures.

How do I tell the stories?

A suggested script or activity idea is included both in the bag and in the Teacher’s Manual. Flannelboards work best if you actually tell the story rather than just reading it from the page. It often helps to practice a bit before you tell it to the children for the first time.

Should the children handle the pieces?

Flannelboards give children concrete, tactile ways to interact with a story, learning objective or game. As with any classroom material, teachers should ensure that the children understand how to handle the pieces, and keep in mind the age and development of students. Teachers are responsible for damage to pieces in the Storytimes to Go kits.

POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

What is the purpose of Storytimes to Go?

Storytimes to Go aims to bring library resources into the preschool environment, enhancing teachers' daily instruction and providing more opportunities for children to develop early literacy skills in a fun and exciting way. The kits allow teachers access to materials that may not already be in the classroom, and each comes with a manual loaded with ideas for using the materials in unique ways that benefit students.

What is included in a Storytimes to Go kit?

Storytimes to Go are thematically based and include a selection of books, music, puppets, puzzles, flannelboards and other manipulatives appropriate for use in the preschool classroom. Each kit also contains a Teacher's Manual that provides curriculum connections, reproducibles, and a list of other KCPL materials of interest.

Who are Storytimes to Go intended for?

Storytimes to Go are designed for use by preschool educators and professional caregivers serving preschool children ages three to five.

Who can check out Storytimes to Go?

Kits may be checked out by any adult with a valid Knox County Public Library card in good standing. Kits may only be borrowed with one's personal library card; teacher cards may not be used.

Should I reserve Storytimes to Go? How do I make a reservation?

What is the checkout period?

Storytimes to Go may be checked out for a period of up to three weeks. They may not be renewed. Only one kit may be checked out at a time.

How much does it cost?

Thanks to a generous grant from the East Tennessee Foundation, KCPL is able to provide these materials for checkout free of charge. Please note, however, that there are unique fees imposed for late returns and damaged or missing parts:

Late Fine: $5 per day, up to a maximum of $25.

Arabella Miller

Little Arabella Miller found a caterpillar. (pretend to pick up caterpillar)
First it walked upon her mother, (walk fingers up arm)
And then upon her baby brother. (walk fingers up arm)
All said, "Arabella Miller,
Take away that caterpillar!" (pretend to put down caterpillar)

Caterpillar creeping, (creep fingers up hand)
Caterpillar crawl. (creep fingers over wrist)
Caterpillar climbing
All along the way. (creep fingers up arm)

Caterpillar spinning, (twirl index finger)
Caterpillar snug. (fold arms over chest)
Caterpillar changing, (unfold arms slowly)
What have you become? (open arms wide)
A butterfly! (pretend to fly)

Five Hungry Ants

Five hungry ants,
Marching nice and neat,
Marched into a picnic
Where they could eat.
They marched into the salad!
They marched into the cake!
They marched into the pepper!
OH NO...A MISTAKE!
AAAAACHOOOOOOO!

Four hungry ants, etc.

Grasshopper

There was a little grasshopper (curl two fingers)
Always on the jump. (make fingers jump)
He never looked ahead (shake head "No")
And he got a big BUMP! (the two fingers crash into palm of other hand)

Here Is the Beehive

Here is the beehive, (hold up fist)
Where are the bees? (shrug shoulders)
Hidden away where nobody sees. (shake fist)
Soon they'll come buzzing out of the hive, (peek into fist)
One, two, three, four, five (slowly open fingers)
BUZZZZZ! (flutter fingers rapidly)

Caterpillars

"let's go to sleep," the caterpillars send, (wiggle finger on both hands)
As they tucked themselves into their beds. (bend finger into palms)
They will awaken by and by, (slowly unfold fingers)
And each one will be a butterfly! (make fluttering motions with hands)

I Saw a Butterfly

I saw a butterfly,
I saw a bee,
I saw a grasshopper,
And they saw me.
I flew like a butterfly,
I buzzed like a bee,
I hopped like a grasshopper,
And I laughed like me.

Bee Dance

I wiggle my belly
And I flap my wings,
I have big eyes
And a stinger that stings.
I love that pollen,
It's good stuff,
I fly around till I find enough.
Then I fly back home
To the hive,
And tell the others where it is
With a jiggle jump jive!

Firefly

Firefly, firefly, light your light.
Firefly, firefly, fly through the night.
Firefly, firefly, fly down low.
Firefly, firefly, off you go!

I'm a Little Ladybug

I'm a little ladybug
Small and red.
I've got black spots and a round black head.
What I come out on a sunny day,
I spread my wings and fly away.

Fuzzy-Wuzzy Caterpillar

Fuzzy-wussy caterpillar
Creeping, creeping, creeping,
Spins herself a blanket,
Now she's sleeping, sleeping, sleeping.

We're doing the grasshopper hop!
We're jumping like we're never gonna stop.
We crouch down low and spring up high
And jump! Jump! Jump!

Fluttering, fluttering, fluttering (flutter arms like wings)
Comes the butterfly (continue fluttering motion)
But grasshopper with his long long legs (point to legs)
Hops so high! (hop)
